Re Bureau airtel to Atlanta and New York dated 2/3/65 and Atlanta airtel to the Bureau, New York and Savannah dated 2/15/65 regarding "Operation Dialogue".

Savannah and New York may discontinue efforts to identify "Operation Dialogue". An article in the "Atlanta Inquirer" (an Atlanta weekly Negro newspaper) dated 2/13/65 titled "KING Calls High Level Meet on 'Operation Dialogue'," advised as follows:

This article sets forth in part that conference of some experts in the area of human relations was called for by Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. on 2/6/65 in New York City. The purpose of this conference was to discuss ways to arrive at more comprehensive and effective techniques for programing the new department of Operation Dialogue which has been launched by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. The article further stated that the New York meeting was held at the Terrace Lounge of the Carnegie Endowment International Center. Among those present were Anthropologist MARGARET MEADE, Dr. GORDON ALLPORT of the Department of Psychology at Harvard University; RALPH ELLISON, author of "The Invisible Man"; Dr. RAY L. BIRDWHISTLE, Anthropologist; Dr. GOODWIN WATSON, Psychologist; Dr. CELESTINE SMITH, Psychologist; Dr. and Mrs. IRA EISINSTEIN, editors and authors; Dr. BEN BOTKIN, author; and BAYARD RUSTIN. In addition to these members of SCLC who were present are MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., HARRY BOYTE and RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, Program Director. Also participating in the conference was Dr. RACHEL DAVIS DuBOIS, an expert in Dialogue techniques with 30 years experience who joined KING's staff on 2/1/65 and her associate Mrs. MEW SOONG LI, who has collaborated with DuBOIS on several books, among them one entitled "Know Your Neighbor."

The February 16, 1965, issue of the "York Dispatch," a daily newspaper published in York, Pa., on page 26, has an item to the effect that two Yorkers are going to Selma, Ala., to help in the civil rights campaign. The article sets forth that the Rev. DOUGLAS PARKS, Minister, Faith Presbyterian Church, and WAYTUS C. SHELTON, a local National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) official, are going to Selma, Ala., on February 17, 1965, to aid Negroes in their voter registration drive and to investigate compliance with the Public Accommodations Section of the Civil Rights Bill. The article said that SHELTON is affiliated with the Rev. PARKS' church and is President of the York Chapter of the NAACP. It stated that Rev. PARKS is a member of the Chapter's Executive Committee.

[redacted] furnished a monthly copy of the Benton-York Project. This newspaper indicated the project was a continuous program of support for the Negro people of Benton County, Miss., and surrounding area. The project, according to the newsletter, began in August 1964 under the auspices of the York Action for Peace, and supports a freedom teacher, MARJORIE MERRILL, and in other ways assists the people of Benton County. The secretary of this group was listed as Rev. DOUGLAS G. PARKS. According to [redacted] York Action for Peace is a pacifist-type group active in the peace and civil rights movements in the York, Pa., area. This group has sponsored demonstrations for peace and cease fire in South Viet Nam. b1 C PA

Records of the York Credit Bureau, as of February 17, 1965, reflect that Rev. DOUGLAS PARKS is a graduate of Union Theological Seminary and came to York, Pa., to become Minister of Faith Presbyterian Church in the summer of 1964. The records reflect that PARKS in 1961 spent seven months in Africa and the Middle East, and in 1962 was sent by the U. S. Government to the Somali Republic in connection with Operation Crossroads - Africa. The article further reflected that he was the minister of two churches in Charleston, S. C., and in the summer of 1963 was a member of the Steering Committee of the Charleston Movement, a civil rights crusade. It was stated that PARKS intends to take a post in Africa after his work is completed at York, Pa., and that he is a life member of the NAACP.

York Credit Bureau records, as of February 17, 1965, reflect that WAYTUS C. SHELTON, 879 Kingston Court, East, York, Pa., is employed by Provident Home Insurance Company.

He married URSULA M. HALL, of York, Pa., in 1956, at which time he was a PFC in the U. S. Army stationed at Fort Bliss, Tex. The records indicate that SHELTON's parents reside at Hendersonville, N. C.

Sources and informants of the Richmond office report no information concerning the organization Religious Workers Association (RWA). Concerning the plans of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Summer Project, the following is noted:

(b)(6)

On February 12, 1965, [redacted] advised he was not aware that the SCLC has plans for a Summer Project in Virginia in connection with voter registration and other civil rights activities. He noted that SCLC's activities currently are in the deep South, and he felt that the activities would continue to be confined in this area during the summer, and to his knowledge, there were no plans for Virginia at this time.

(b)(6)

On February 23, 1965, [redacted] whose identity should be concealed due to his request, advised he has been closely following all racial activities in Virginia, and he particularly has been alert for any information concerning a Summer Project during 1965. He advised nothing has come to his attention concerning proposed activities by SCLC, and that the RWA is unknown to him. He continued the only information coming to his attention concerning a Summer Project in Virginia was in the form of a conference called during the early part of December, 1964, at Hampton, Virginia, at the Hampton Institute, sponsored by the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). This conference was attended by college students and called for a program of action involving Southside Virginia. He added that nothing has come to his attention indicating that a program of action had been defined, and that while there have been a meeting or two called by student organizations at various colleges in Virginia to develop the program, nothing has been finalized, and plans to date are indefinite. He added that his organization and he are closely following the matter to determine the identitites of the individuals and organizations which might be involved, and any information obtained would be made available to this office.

(b)(6)

On February 24, 1965, [redacted] Richmond, Virginia, advised that the RWA is unknown to him, and nothing has come to his attention indicating that the SCLC had plans for a Summer Project in Virginia. He was aware that a group of students held a conference in early December, 1964, at Hampton Institute for voter registration activities in Southside Virginia during the summer, and that nothing to date had been finalized concerning such a program. He said he was aware that some college groups in Virginia had held meetings regarding the voter registration program, but nothing had been finalized, and he stated that the NAACP would not co-sponsor such a project. He pointed out, however, that it could be possible that some NAACP members might participate in such a project should one be organized.

On February 25, 1965, [redacted] advised [redacted] were planning to have a voter registration drive in Petersburg, Virginia and Southside Virginia, during the Spring of 1965. He added that final plans had not been completed, and that a meeting was to be held sometime in March, 1965 for completing the plans. He continued that the civil rights situation in Selma, Alabama, would have a great influence on their plans, since at the present time all the field forces of the SCLC are tied up in Selma, Alabama; and until the situation in that area changed, their forces would remain in Alabama.

[redacted] (b)(7)(D)

Richmond will maintain close contact with the sources and informants for additional data concerning any Summer Project, and pertinent information will be submitted to the Bureau and appropriate offices. Dear Friend:

As a leader in the American academic community you are cognizant of the profound social changes now sweeping our nation. As an active agent in these changes, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference hopes you share our realization that certain desperate problems still plaguing our nation can be alleviated only by sustained work and personal sacrifice. One of these problems is the disenfranchisement of many southern Negroes. Citizens must no longer be denied their right and responsibility to participate in the governmental process.

In community after community, American leaders have come to realize that their only real long range hope lies in the ballot. Consequently, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has selected seventy-five rural counties and six urban counties in Georgia, South Carolina, Florida, and Virginia to be the scene of a ten week Summer Project. Massive voter registration drives and political education programs are the aims of this program.

The project depends on the recruitment of five hundred mature and dedicated citizens from the academic community who are willing to have a summer's work repaid not with money, but with new insight into America and renewed hope in the courage of the human spirit.

Each participant will be mailed a required reading list to help prepare for his work. The summer will begin with a week of intensive orientation including discussions on the procedure and problems of voter registration, examination of Southern politics and economics, and training in the applications and implications of nonviolence. All steps of the program will be carefully supervised by experienced SCLC staff.

You can assist us invaluably in the recruitment of these students. Enclosed is a form requesting names of persons and organizations in your academic community who will be helpful. If another person in your institution could better fill in this form, please forward it to him.

Since careful long range planning is needed to achieve a successful program, we will be grateful for your prompt attention to this request.

Faithfully yours,

He was in a protest picket line at the Lohr Distributing Company in June of 1964, protesting hiring practices of that organization. He has been responsible for writing correspondence criticising the St. Louis Building Contractors organization with regard to the hiring of Negroes. He has led a demonstration in St. Louis at the United States Federal Courthouse protesting the lack of Federal protection for civil rights workers in the State of Mississippi in June of 1964.

GREEN participated in a protest march at the St. Louis National Gateway Memorial Development Center in August of 1964, at which time, as a means of gaining attention, he climbed up on the Arch, was arrested and fined $100.00 and 30 days in jail. He demonstrated at the Old Federal Courthouse in St. Louis on August 22, 1964. He participated in a press conference on August 3, 1964, at which time he voiced criticism of the hiring practices at the McDonnell Aircraft Corporation, and from September 21, 1964, to mid November, 1964, participated in daily picketing of the home of the President of the McDonnell Aircraft Corporation at #1 Glenview Road, Ladue, Missouri.

St. Louis is aware of the fact that GREEN has showed a considerable interest in the W. E. B. DuBois Club activity in this city. There has been no information developed indicating, however, that he is a member of the CP here.

SUBJECT: THREATENED BOYCOTT OF MISSISSIPPI PRODUCTS BY SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE; RACIAL MATTERS

On March 5, 1965, we disseminated information to the Security Exchange Commission (SEC) to the effect that Eric Kindberg and his wife, Ann, field assistants in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), might contact SEC to get information on Mississippi businesses in order to plan a boycott of Mississippi products.

On March 8, 1965, [redacted] SEC, advised [redacted] that the Kindbergs had appeared at SEC on March 1, 1965, with a list of 83 companies. RE: PROPOSED DEMONSTRATIONS BY THE SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE AT GADSDEN, ALABAMA

Reference is made to memorandum dated March 18, 1965.

Information was received by the Birmingham Division that one Bennie Lucheon, Field Secretary for Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Gadsden, Alabama, would participate in a march in Gadsden, Alabama, on March 16, 1965, to protest recent action by officials in Selma, Alabama.

Bennie Lucheon is identified as Bennie John Luchion, about whom the following information is known to the Birmingham Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

ENCLOSURE

PROPOSED DEMONSTRATIONS BY THE
SCLC AT GADSDEN, ALABAMA

[redacted]

(b)(7)(D)
(b)(7)(C)

In July, 1963, Luchion was observed by Agents of the Birmingham Division of the FBI to be present at almost all times during demonstrations by CORE beginning June 10, 1963, at Gadsden, Alabama. During these demonstrations it was noted by Agents that he would have to be carried bodily to police cars when arrested. He registered several Civil Rights complaints with the Birmingham FBI. [redacted] He had no local address at Gadsden but had been in Gadsden for about two months. He advised Agents he lived with anyone who would take him in and that he had no employment. He gave his permanent address at that time as 3735 Abundance, New Orleans. He is described as a Negro male; born June 28, 1939, New Orleans; 5 feet six inches; 120 pounds, black hair; brown eyes; medium brown complexion.

On July 8, 1963, Luchion made a complaint to Special Agents [redacted] and [redacted] at Gadsden, Alabama, against two unnamed [redacted] and [redacted] Luchion claimed [redacted] stomped on his feet, kicked his shins, and struck him with electric prod stick when he would not answer questions. The two unnamed police officers were present. Luchion claimed he did not go to a doctor, but another individual with CORE, William Douthard, stated he took Luchion to Dr. J. W. Stewart at Gadsden. Dr. Stewart advised he did not see Luchion and does not know him. He claimed he received a call that something had happened at Attalla but claimed he did not see or treat victim.

Based on investigation conducted, Assistant U. S. Attorney R. Macey Taylor at Birmingham, Alabama, advised that there was a total absence of any evidence of a specific intent in this case by any police officer to deprive the victim of a specific right guaranteed by the Constitution. Mr. Taylor did not feel this case was suitable for prosecution and requested no further investigation.

In another complaint, Luchion alleged on June 15, 1963, he was hit by a fist of a [redacted] Police Department Officer wearing badge [redacted] He claimed that on June 18, 1963, he was struck with electric sticks by [redacted] Officers and some [redacted] Deputies. He claimed he was struck with night sticks on the night of June 18, 1963, and claimed on Wednesday or Thursday after June 18, 1963, he was taken from his cell in the [redacted] Jail, [redacted] and prodded with electric sticks and beaten by unidentified Deputy Sheriff and an Alabama Highway Patrolman. He claimed being beaten with flashlights. (b)(6)(c)

There was also another victim in this same case.

On July 12, 1963, based on investigation conducted by the Birmingham Office of the FBI, Assistant U. S. Attorney R. Macey Taylor advised that in view of obvious discrepancies and inconsistencies in the version of the facts furnished by the victims in related incidents, it was indicated that there is an impossibility of proving facts alleged by victims. He further stated that there was a total absence of any evidence of a specific intent by one police officer to deprive victim of a specific right guaranteed by the Constitution and for these reasons he could not consider the case suitable for prosecution. Accordingly, he did not desire additional investigation.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on March 2, 1965, that Stanley Levison and Clarence Jones were in contact on that date. Their contact, the source said, was in regard to an appointment with Martin Luther King, Jr., (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC), while in New York City. Jones said he had "set aside Wednesday, Thursday and Friday (March 3, 4, 5, 1965) for King to see "us" (Levison and Jones). Jones said he would let Levison know more about their plans as soon as he found out.

On the night of March 3, 1965, the same confidential source advised that Clarence Jones was in contact with Ossie Davis (noted Negro actor and playwright) on that date. Their contact, the source said, was in regard to King's safety.

Davis said that he desired that President Johnson's attention be called to recent threats on King's life, and urge that he move to protect his life because "we cannot afford to lose him at this juncture". He said "their" request should be dramatically made, pointing out that King was doing a job that the United States Government should be doing; and state that it was mockery to talk about protecting freedom in South Viet Nam, when the "one man who is defending it in Selma, Alabama, is in jeopardy".

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

Davis said that King had suggested that calls be made to the President, the Attorney General and J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), to inform them that his life was in jeopardy. Jones submitted the following proposals of action for consideration: the submission of an open letter to the President, to the Attorney General and to Mr. Hoover, subscribed to by "opinion makers", whom the President would respect because of their stature in the civil rights field; the submission of a telegram to the Attorney General, subscribed to by about ten nationally prominent people in the civil rights field; and have a group of responsible people request an appointment with the Attorney General, at which time they could voice their fears.

Jones said he was to meet with King on March 4, 1965, at the Americana Hotel, New York City, at which time those proposals would be presented for King's approval.

On March 4, 1965, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Clarence Jones and Bernard Lee (Assistant to King) were in conference regarding an appointment for Jones with King. Jones stressed the importance of a meeting with King since he had a lot of things to talk over. Lee told Jones to come to King's hotel room 4823, at the Americana Hotel at 1:00 PM, because by that time King should be back from the Hilton Hotel, where he was addressing a meeting of Jewish women.

On March 4, 1965, at 12:40 PM, Special Agents of the FBI observed Martin Luther King enter the Americana Hotel, Seventh Avenue and 52nd Street, New York City.

On March 4, 1965, at 12:31 PM, Special Agents of the FBI observed Stanley Levison enter the Americana Hotel, Seventh Avenue and 52nd Street, New York, New York, walk to the house phone and ask for the room of the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr. After talking on the phone, Levison went on the hotel elevator to the 43rd Floor, then entered room 4323 at 12:36 PM.

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters

At 1:25 PM, March 4, 1965, Special Agents of the FBI observed Clarence Jones enter the Americana Hotel and take the elevator that serviced the 43rd floor.

On March 4, 1965, at 3:20 PM, Special Agents of the FBI observed Ossie Davis enter the Americana Hotel and take the elevator that serviced the 43rd floor. He departed at 3:42PM.

Special Agents observed Stanley Levison and Clarence Jones leave the Americana Hotel at 3:55 PM; Andrew Young was observed leaving at 4:00 PM.

ENCLOSURE 100-438794-

Rachel Davis DuBois

During 1954, Rachel Davis DuBois was again interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI. She furnished the following information:

She described herself as an educator, a Quaker, and a pacifist She said she was one of a group who had organized, rather informally, the group, Americans For Puerto Rico's Independence, during the late 1940's. She said the group met sporadically and discussed the problem of Puerto Rico's urge for independence, generally in terms of the advisability of a Gandhi-type of passive resistance to imperialism by the United States. She said that the terroristic outbreak by the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico in November, 1950 had been very shocking to her pacifist nature and she and the other members of Americans For Puerto Rico's Independence had dissolved that group. She said her only other association with the group was her support of the Ruth Reynolds Defense Committee which attempted to raise funds on behalf of Ruth Reynolds after her arrest in Puerto Rico in connection with the terrorist activities of the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico.

The Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

During 1955, Rachel Davis DuBois communicated with the New York Office of the FBI and advised that she was the Director of the Workshop for Cultural Democracy, 204 East 18th Street, New York City, New York. She said this organization was founded in 1934 and incorporated in 1945, and was active in promoting better relations among all types of people

Information concerning the Workshop for Cultural Democracy is contained in an Appendix to this memorandum.

Rachel Davis DuBois

During 1944, records at New York University, New York City, revealed that Rachel Davis Dubois was born January 25, 1892 at Clarksboro, New Jersey and received the Ph. B. degree during June, 1914, from Bucknell University; the Master of Arts degree during December, 1929, from Columbia University; and the Ph.D. degree in Education from New York University during October, 1940.

[redacted] (b)(6) advised during 1944 that he was well acquainted with Rachel Davis Dubois [redacted] He advised that she had lectured for eight years at New York University on interracial matters and was interested in all the minority groups in America and not in any particular group as such. [redacted] described her as a devout Quaker, strictly honest and a woman of highest integrity. He indicated that the subject of her doctorial dissertation was "Adventures in Interracial Education" and that it represented her twenty-five years of interracial work.

A confidential source advised that the name of Rachel Davis Dubois appeared as a sponsor for "Americans All" Week, October 21-28, 1941, conducted by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born.

The American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

During April, 1943, [redacted] (b)(6) advised that during March, 1939, a meeting was held of the United Pacifists Conference, a loose-knit group made up of representatives from many pacifist groups in the New York area. At this conference it was decided that some type of central news media would be necessary for distribution at various peace meetings. The result was the publication in 1939 of a newspaper called 'The Conscientious Objector".

Rachel Davis Dubois (b)(6)

[redacted] advised that Rachel Davis Dubois, a member of the Board of Directors of "The Conscientious Objector" is also active in and connected with the New York City Section of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. She is interested in inter-racial cultural and educational work.

The February 7, 1957 issue of the "Long Island Daily Press" at page 5, columns 1 and 2 contained an item captioned Conference Sunday on Human Relations". The item indicated that the conference sponsored by the State Commission Against Discrimination and the Nassau Human Relations Council had as one of its speakers, Doctor Rachel Dubois, of the New School for Social Research who was to demonstrate techniques for leading group conversation, which she pioneered.

A second confidential source advised during 1953 that Docotr Rachel Davis Dubois, of the Workshop for Cultural Democracy, was listed as a sponsor for a Conference on Racial Bigotry and the New York Press held February 25, 1953 at New York City, New York.

A third confidential source advised during 1945 that the name Doctor Rachel Davis Dubois was included in a list of sponsors of the Committee for Equal Justice for Mrs. Recy Taylor The source further advised that the purpose of of the Committee was to secure the prosecution under Alabama law of six white hoodlums who allegedly kidnapped and raped Mrs. Recy Taylor, Negro wife and mother at Abbeville, Alabama.

During March, 1965, the general index of the New York City Public Library, Fifth Avenue at 42nd Street, contained the following references to books written by Rachel Davis Dubois.

Neighbors in Action, described as a report of a project in intergroup relations carried on by the Parents Association of Junior High School 165 in New York City in cooperation with the Workshop for Cultural Democracy.

Methods of Achieving Racial Justice, described as a discussion outline for church, school and adult education groups. Published in 1936 in association with the Works Progress Administration.

Rachel Davis Dubois

APPENDIX

The Workshop For Cultural Democracy

A confidential source advised during December, 1947, that the Workshop for Cultural Democracy is neither Communist dominated nor influenced even though the name of LOUIS ADAMIC appears as one of the Special Consultants. LOUIS ADAMIC is known as an author and pro-TITO advocate and formerly honorary vice-president and publicity director and original organizer of the United Committee of South Slavic Americans.

The United Committee of South Slavic Americans has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The source further advised that the Workshop for Cultural Democracy considers itself as a social practitioner and attempts to carry into real life, the principles of theoretical social psychology. In order to perfect harmonious community living, it is working in the field of interracial group adjustment. It appears to deal solely with social problems and not to impress others with the political ideals of its members.

The 1964-1965 Brooklyn Telephone Directory, published by the New York Telephone Company, contains a listing for Grand Shiek F. Turner-El at 512 Classon [redacted] Brooklyn, New York, telephone number ST 3-5903.

F. Turner-El was interviewed by a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) at 340 Hancock Street, Brooklyn, New York, during 1944 and he advised, at that time, that he had founded Temples 21, 23 and 34 of the Moorish Science Temple of America and that he had broken away from a similar organization, headed by one C. Kirkman-Bey of Chicago, and had founded his own religious movement, known as the Moorish Science Temple, the Divine and National Movement of North America, Incorporated. Turner-El stated that, at this time, his duties as head of the organization were to ordain ministers, to issue charters and to preside over the Moorish school which taught the Moorish catechism. He stated that his organization was not subversive and that any member of his organization would fight any enemy of the United States. Turner-El was questioned as to the allegiance of the members of his group to the Moorish flag, and he advised that his members were all loyal to the flag of the United States.

Grand Shiek Frederick Turner-El

During December, 1943, a review of the records of Local Board number 205, Selective Service System, reflected that Tamad Frederick Turner-El, 340 Hancock Street, Brooklyn, was born at Cincinnati, Ohio, on January 14, 1910; that he resided with his wife, [redacted] Turner-El; and that he requested a 4-D classification under the Selective Service Act of 1940, on the grounds that he was a minister. Turner-El stated on his questionnaire that he had attended eight years of elementary school, four years of high school and four years at Alazhar University, Cairo, Egypt and that he was able to speak ten languages.

During a hearing at Selective Service Headquarters, Brooklyn, New York, on January 7, 1944, Frederick Turner-El explained his four years of study at the University of Alazhar, Cairo, Egypt, as having been instructed by the professors from Alazhar University in Newark, New York, approximately 30 years previously.

During 1944, Frederick Turner-El attended a meeting at the Church of God and Saints of Christ in Bridgeport, Connecticut, where he spoke to a group of people concerning the nationality of Negroes. Turner-El stated that he had been questioned by J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI in Washington, D.C., during 1940 and was asked by Mr. Hoover if he was pro-Nazi, pro-Fascist or pro-American. He claimed that he advised Mr. Hoover that his people (Negroes) were simply provoked.
